

TELEPHONE CALL LURES TO DEATH

IDA LEEGSON MAKES DESPERATE, VAIN STRUGGLE AGAINST STRANGLER.

CHICAGO POLICE ARE BAFFLED

Refuse to Believe Girl Victim of the "White Slavers."—There Are No Clues Whatever to the Crime.

Chicago.—Miss Ida G. Leegson, art student, whose nude body was found on the prairie west of here, was lured to her death by some man who telephoned to her in response to her advertisement for a place as a nurse. This was the conclusion of the police after more than twenty-four hours' search, which resulted, the police admit, in no trail that can direct them to the murderer.

The thin silken fish line found near the body and the bruised circle it left around Miss Leegson's neck, showed the manner of her death. Her tattered clothes strewn for half a mile along the road approaching the prairie and the bruises on the body indicated that death came only after she had made a hard struggle but there was nothing found to show by whom Miss Leegson had been induced to visit the lonely spot on the western outskirts of the city.

After giving up her position as a school teacher in a Mason City, Iowa, school, Miss Leegson went to Chicago and engaged a room with Mrs. James P. Burnett, saying she was going to try to earn more money to continue her art studies. Saturday she inserted an advertisement in a paper asking for a place as a trained nurse.

Saturday afternoon a telephone call came from a "Mr. Wilson," who, when told Miss Leegson was out, inquired closely after her personal appearances. An hour later he called again and asked her to go to a point on the west side to care for his wife.

The street address given by "Mr. Wilson" proved to be a vacant lot on the prairie. A canvass of the houses in the vicinity of the prairie showed none occupied by anyone named Wilson.

The possibility that Miss Leegson was lured to her death by an organized band of "white slavers," while being investigated by the police, is not believed by them to offer a solution of the mystery. An investigation among the teachers at the university of Chicago and at the art institute indicated that the murdered woman had been known for her industry, that she had no man friends, and that her nights had been spent in study.

The police are searching for the dark colored, high covered automobile described by William Salvage, a switchman on the belt line road, where such a car passed this crossing Saturday night and that it had returned an hour or so later.

Miss Leegson's hand satchel was found Monday a block from where the body lay. It had been slashed with a knife and its contents removed, except a pair of stockings and a piece of soap.

Don't Believe Spencer's Story. Chicago.—Of the nineteen murders Harry Spencer, slayer of Mrs. Mildred Allison Rexroat, swore he had committed, the police after investigating his alleged crimes in various cities are able to fix upon him only one murder or possibly two.

Captain Halyin, chief of the detective bureau, announced his conviction that Spencer in giving his long circumstantial confession of crime was a consummate falsifier.

HUERTA SHAKES UP CABINET.

Results in Complete Change of Ministry Except War Portfolio.

Mexico City.—Another general shakeup in the Huerta cabinet resulted in a complete change in the ministry with the exception of the war portfolio. Most of the ministers were shifted from one department to another but in two instances sub-secretaries were promoted. The cabinet as it is now constituted, follows:

Minister of foreign relations, Querido Moheno.
Minister of the interior, Manuel Carza Aldape.
Minister of finance, Adolfo De La Llama, formerly minister of justice.
Minister of public instruction, Garcia Naranjo.
Minister of communications and public works, Jose M. Lozano.
Minister of justice, Enrique Gerosieta, formerly minister of finance.
Minister of war, General Aureliano Blanquet, retains the portfolio.

BACHELOR MAKES A POINT

Merely an Idea, of Course, but May Also Be Something of an Explanation.

"There are in the United States 17,000,000 unmarried adults. Out of every 100 American men 39 are unmarried. How to explain these dreadful figures?"

Thus spoke, with a gesture of despair, Mayor Oakley Curtis of Portland.

"One explanation," he continued, "may lie in a dialogue I overheard at a picnic. The participants in this dialogue were a bachelor and a spinster; he about thirty-five, she about thirty."

"Men," said the spinster, "used to marry younger than they do now, didn't they?"

"Yes," the bachelor answered, "but did not women use to be more willing to wash dishes then?"—Cincinnati Enquirer.

IF HAIR IS TURNING GRAY, USE SAGE TEA

Don't Look Old! Try Grandmother's Recipe to Darken and Beautify Gray, Faded, Lifeless Hair.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant.—Adv.

"Woman's moral obligations as a citizen."

"That new gown I brought home with me from Paris. And, just think, I had it so cleverly packed in with my old clothes that the custom house inspector never discovered it was there."

NOT AN INHERITED DISEASE

Experiments With Cattle Have Proved That Tuberculosis Is Not Thus Transmitted.

At the Woburn experimental farm in England an interesting and extremely important study of the heredity of tuberculosis among cattle has recently been made. Fifteen calves from tuberculous mothers were reared under healthy conditions, in which individual infection with the tubercle bacillus was impossible. That is, they were taken away from their mothers and supplied with pure milk from an uninfected source. When the steers, into which a part of these calves grew, were killed, not a trace of tubercular infection could be found in their bodies. The heifers have been bred from, and their calves will in turn be examined for tuberculosis. The part of the experiment involving the steers indicates that tuberculosis among cattle at least is not inherited. If the heifers also supports this view, an economic fact of considerable agricultural importance will be in a fair way of proof.

FRUIT LAXATIVE FOR SICK CHILD

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver and bowels.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs" that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver, and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "Fruit Laxative" and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleaning" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Adv.

Truly Blessed

"Whom do I envy?" said the tired-looking woman. "I'll tell you whom. It is not the kings and queens of earth, nor the merely rich, but a woman who, I know, earns every cent of her income, yet manages to squeeze so many pleasures and junketings into her daily life that she sometimes exclaims in despair: 'Oh, when will I ever get time to do any work?'"

"That's it. Just to be able to wonder when you will ever get time to do any work instead of wondering when you will ever get time to do anything else seems to me the very apotheosis of earthly bliss."

Her Dear Friends.

"I think Archie Allacada has made up his mind to marry," said the vivacious blonde.

"To marry Virgie Skoemer?" queried the sparkling brunette.

"Uh-huh."

"What symptoms do you notice?"

"Well, he wears a sort of resigned, what's-the-use expression on his face, and doesn't run when he sees her coming now."

The Limit.

Jennie—I hear she fell overboard in her street clothes.

Minnie—Yes, and she was arrested for being in the water in an indecent costume.—Judge.

To the Thirsty.

"This is the hardest kind of luck."

"What is?"

"Nothing here but soft drinks."
